

Executive Proclamation

State of South Dakota

Office Of The Governor

WHEREAS, The children of South Dakota are the hope and joy of this great state and hold a very special place in the hearts and lives of all South Dakotans; and,

WHEREAS, The world surrounding our children is a world still new and filled with excitement--a world where dreams are limited only by their imagination; and,

WHEREAS, We adults often overlook the simple, innocent beauty seen through the eyes of our children and forget to shower them with the love, nurturing and understanding they need to grow into caring and self-reliant adults; and,

WHEREAS, It is only fitting that the citizens of South Dakota set aside one Sunday out of every year to recognize the contributions of the children of South Dakota and to relive the joys of childhood:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, GEORGE S. MICKELSON, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim Sunday, October 9, 1988, as in South Dakota, and urge all citizens to take due note of the observance.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this First Day of September, in the Year of Our Lord, Nineteen Hundred and Eighty-Eight

GEORGE S. MICKELSON, GOVERNOR

ATTEST:

JOYCE HAZELTINE, SECRETARY OF STATE
